POLITE PROUD POSITIVE PERSISTENT

Weekly news:

We are proud to announce that Mrs Camm has successfully been appointed as Assistant Head at another local primary school. A big congratulations to her. We are currently organising her replacement cover and once we have more details we will inform parents. She will start her new position after Easter.

Red Nose Day 2023 will take on Friday 17th March. The organisers themselves have set a theme of Mr Men/Little Miss. If you wish to join in with their theme that is great but do not feel you have to. We are happy for you to wear your own clothes. If you wish to donate to the cause we will be posting a JustGiving link after the half term.

Young Carers have relaunched with different services and packages for young people to access. The group is not part of Social Services remit. If you think you have a child in your household that helps a family member due to disability; physical or mental please can you message Miss Barraclough where we can then help to support a referral.
