Up and Coming Events/Reminders

As we say our sad farewells to Mrs Kirkham today we can also share and announce that Mrs Broadhurst has successfully been appointed as Learning Mentor for the school. She already knows our families well so it is fantastic that she has successfully secured the role. Mrs Broadhurst will start the role as we return after the October half term. In the interim if you have any concerns please can you direct them to the class teacher in the first instance. Thank you.

Parent Workshops continue - You are warmly invited into class to work with your child on various activities. All workshops start at 2.30pm. For more details please speak with your child's class teacher.

Word of the week:

Persistent

IF YOU ARE PERSISTENT
YOU WILL get it.

IF YOU ARE CONSISTENT
YOU WILL keep it.

This week's recommended read

It tells the story of a young girl named Heidi, an orphan who moves in with her Grandfather in the Swiss countryside. Heidi is a happy and kind girl who quickly makes friends and helps those around her find joy in their lives.
